

NHSRA members are given the opportunity to join the Quanta Rodeo Team

Quanta Services, a proud partner of the NHSRA, is the leading specialty contractor with the largest skill labor force in North America. Together, with its family of companies, Quanta empowers people to build better lives for themselves and their communities by offering fulfilling careers in the trades, and delivering comprehensive infrastructure solutions for the utility, communications, and energy industries.

Rodeo team membership is for incoming Seniors, Juniors, and Sophomores for the 2022-2023 season.

Applications will be accepted through July 1, 2022
